1. INTRODUCTION

These Terms and Conditions govern your participation in the Reserved Elites Plan offered by CrestBlockFunds ("Company," "we," "us," or "our"). By investing in this plan, you ("Investor," "you," or "your") agree to be bound by these terms. Please read them carefully.

2. INVESTMENT PLAN OVERVIEW

2.1 Reserved Elites Plan

The Reserved Elites Plan offers investors the opportunity to earn daily profits from cryptocurrency investments:

- Daily Profit Rate: 50% of your investment amount
- Minimum Investment: $40,000
- Distribution Period: 7 consecutive days
- Tax Obligation: 10% capital gains tax on realized profits

2.2 How It Works - Example

Description	Amount
-------------	--------

Your Investment (Minimum)	$40,000
Daily Profit (50%)	$20,000
Total After 7 Days	$180,000 (profit + principal)
Tax Liability (10% of $140,000 profit)	$14,000

Important: The Company distributes the full 50% daily profit to you. However, you are responsible for paying the 10% tax using your own external funds, not from the investment returns.

3. TAXATION AND YOUR RESPONSIBILITIES

3.1 What Are Taxable Events?

A taxable event occurs when you engage in any of the following cryptocurrency transactions:

- Selling cryptocurrency for fiat currency (e.g., USD, EUR)
- Exchanging one cryptocurrency for another
- Withdrawing cryptocurrency from the platform
- Converting cryptocurrency to other digital assets

3.2 Understanding Capital Gains Tax

When you sell, swap, or withdraw cryptocurrency for more than its original purchase price, you have made a capital gain. This gain creates a legal obligation to pay tax, called a capital gains tax liability.

This tax obligation exists immediately upon realizing the gain, regardless of whether you withdraw the funds, reinvest them, or keep them on our platform.

3.3 No Tax Withholding by CrestBlockFunds

CrestBlockFunds does NOT withhold, deduct, or pay taxes on your behalf. We provide you with 100% of your daily profits. You are solely responsible for handling all tax obligations.

3.4 Paying Taxes with External Funds

Critical Requirement: Any taxes owed must be paid using external funds — meaning money from sources outside your cryptocurrency investment with us.

For example, if you owe $14,000 in taxes on your crypto profits, you must pay this amount from your personal bank account, savings, or other non-crypto sources.

3.5 Your Tax Responsibilities

As an investor, you are solely responsible for:

- Calculating all taxes owed on your cryptocurrency transactions
- Filing accurate and timely tax returns with relevant authorities
- Paying all taxes by their due dates
- Keeping records of all transactions for tax purposes

We strongly recommend consulting with a qualified tax professional regarding your specific tax situation. CrestBlockFunds does not provide tax, legal, or accounting advice.

3.6 Indemnification

You agree to protect and hold CrestBlockFunds harmless from any claims, penalties, interest, or liabilities that arise from your failure to comply with tax laws. This includes any legal fees or costs we incur as a result of tax-related disputes involving you.
